DIARY NOTES

Executive Director-Comptroller 2 December 1965

1. At Jack Earman's request I talked to Dick Helms about the following:

a. We discussed whether [redacted] and his associates should be polygraphed and decided that this should be done. 25X1

b. I advised Dick that [redacted] has agreed to head the task force to look into intelligence requirements. 25X1

2. I had a thirty-minute session with Dr. Tietjen on alcoholism. As a result, I want to call a meeting of senior representatives from the Offices of Medical Services, Personnel, and Security and one representative from each Directorate to discuss this problem.

4. When I presented a number of supergrade promotions to Dick Helms today, we had a brief discussion about the consideration which had been given to these promotions before they were submitted for his approval. Dick asked me to assemble the Deputies and discuss this problem with them and specifically to consider the question of whether we should re-establish the Supergrade Review Board or something similar to it.

6. I talked with Dick Helms, Des FitzGerald, and Jack Earman about the [redacted] case. We agreed that Jack should furnish a copy of his preliminary report to Des and that Des would follow this case to its ultimate conclusion as quickly as possible. 25X1

7. Jim Angleton advised me that he had briefed General Jack Davis, Assistant Chief of Staff for Intelligence of the Army, who in turn had briefed Generals Johnson and Spivey on his theory that the Sino-Soviet split could be a hoax.

8. I met with Bob Bannerman, Emmett Echols, Dr. Tietjen, and [redacted] to discuss the case of [redacted] a fifty-two-year-old Agency employee about whom there is some fairly solid evidence of homosexuality. [redacted] however, has admitted nothing and has refused to resign unless he has a job of equal grade and salary or receives a discontinued service annuity. He is now on "administrative leave." I requested that (1) his administrative leave be terminated and he be put to work, (2) he be ordered to report to the Office of Medical Services for an evaluation, and (3) Emmett Echols have an informal talk with an appropriate representative at the Civil Service Commission to explore the possibilities of a discontinued service annuity. After we receive the medical evaluation and some reactions from the Civil Service Commission, we can then decide our course of action. 25X1 25X1 25X1

10. [redacted] said that Dale Thompson of the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare was interested in [redacted] as a grade GS-15 deputy. I told [redacted] to tell Mr. Thompson that I could not in good conscience recommend [redacted] and that I would be glad to talk with him further if he wanted to do so. 25X1 25X1 25X1
